

From: Jerry BERKMAN
Sent: Friday, January 8, 2021 12:16 PM
To: Ethnic Studies
Subject: [EXTERNAL] Ethnic Studies Model Curriculum

Many people seem to think anti-semitism doesn't exist or is unimportant. But on Jan. 6, at the Capitol in Washington D.C. on January 6, some of the rioters were wearing "Camp Auschwitz - Work Brings Freedom" sweatshirts with a picture of a skull in the center. Clearly anti-semitic. We need a strong module on anti-semitism, and to delete any implicitly anti-semitic statements in the other modules. See:

https://forward.com/culture/461705/what-the-camp-auschwitz-sweatshirt-tells-us-about-alt-right-aesthetics/?utm_source=PostUp&utm_medium=email&utm_campaign=Afternoon%20Newsletter%20\(Sunday%20RSS\)%20USE%20THIS&utm_maildate=01/07/2021%20USE%20THIS&utm_maildate=01/07/2021)

- Jerry Berkman, Berkeley