God Damn America is Farrakhan's rallying cry. That America is irredeemably evil is central to his teaching. This is why the Antifa crowd who mobbed the "Free Speech Rally" which almost took place two days ago were able to scream "You're a white supremacist" at the black organizer whose front teeth they had knocked out before he had a chance to say anything. These mostly young white people had been schooled in Farrakhan's teachings which have overtaken American education since the 1968 "Student Strike" at SFSU. Any one who dares to express any pro-American sentiment is automatically an evil fascist and deserving of physical and verbal assault. I myself was threatened with being beaten up in a class at SFSU for a similar crime of saying something pro-American. Farrakhan is not just an Antisemite. He is also an America hater.
