General	Kinneret Israel City College of San Francisco	One purpose of Ethnic Studies curriculum is to end inequity in education. I appreciate this curriculum that works towards this goal. I support the inclusion of Arab American studies as part of the Ethnic Studies curriculum in California. Arabs and Pacific Islanders are particularly marginalized communities that are not well represented in current course offerings (page 1). Stereotypes and myths about Arabs and the Middle East persist and are overrepresented in United States media and news. I support the objectives (page 233) outlining the benefits of teaching the diverse history of Arabs and Arab Americans as a way to challenge xenophobia and discrimination and to create a welcoming environment for marginalized students. Including a history of migration to the US (page 236) is necessary for any marginalized community, and in particular for Arab Americans at this time. Teaching this history will help create a bridge between migrant communities and celebrate a rich history of a growing population.
