

From: Kenneth Newson
Sent: Friday, August 16, 2019 10:19 AM
To: Ethnic Studies <EthnicStudies@cde.ca.gov>
Subject: Ethnic studies

If you are going to forget about Jews as an ethnic group and eliminate teaching their history you must be fair and unbiased. That would mean Cancelling Black History Month, Easter celebrations, Christmas Vacation and any acknowledgement any religious holiday.

Let's remember that the foundation of Western Culture is Judaism, and their story of slavery must be told, as well as the discrimination they they suffered in this world, just like Catholics.