

To Members of the Ethnic Studies Curriculum Development Committee et. al,

I urge you to create a curriculum that carefully explores the past and present history of ethnic groups without using it as a forum to advance political agendas and sow divisiveness.

Give everyone a seat at the table to promote understanding, civility, sensitivity, and a shared purpose in finding ways to work together.

Sincerely,

Judy Seitelman