Dear Instructional Quality Commission Members,

Dr. Clarence B. Jones is the founding director of the USF Institute for Nonviolence and Social Justice. Dr. Jones play an important role in the Black Freedom Movement in the United States, including service as legal counsel, strategic advisor and draft speechwriter for Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. from 1960 until Dr. King's assassination on April 4, 1968.

On October 14, 2020, Dr. Jones sent you a letter of concern about the Ethnic Studies Model Curriculum. I am re-submitting his letter because for some reason it is not listed as being received in the IQC comments box

Please see the attached resubmission from Dr. Jones. It is identical to the letter he sent you on October 14, 2020.

Thank you very much.

Jonathan D. Greenberg

On behalf of Dr. Clarence B. Jones
