

Darlene Nolan

Your curriculum should never include an assault on our Constitution, the lie that capitalism is racist, glorifying cop killers, antisemitism, boycotting Jews or Conservatives, supporting Islamic terrorists, censorship, or supporting racial division in our country. School curriculum should always promote allegiance to our country, assimilation into our culture/values, racial unity, and legal entry into our country. Americans are waking up to the dangerous indoctrination of our children and will strongly oppose it.