Glossary	David Jacobson Dean Touro College Los Angeles	Glossary – includes a definition of the Boycott, Divestment, and Sanctions (BDS) Movement against Israel. It claims the purpose of BDS is to “establish freedom for Palestinians living under apartheid conditions.” It then parrots more BDS talking points while offering no critical perspectives about this campaign of hate, which seeks to end Israel’s existence.
Sample Lesson Plans	“	Page 234 – Encourage teachers to highlight BDS and a pro-BDS group called Direct Action for Palestine, but no voices critical of their perspectives. In 2016, both houses of the California legislature overwhelmingly passed the Combating BDS Act, which Governor Brown signed into law. In light of this, how could this curriculum recognize BDS as legitimate, let alone promote it?
Sample Lesson Plans	“	Page 234 – Promotes a false equivalence between Israel’s efforts to stop terrorists from entering communities to murder innocent people, and U.S. policies on the border with Mexico.
Sample Lesson Plans	“	Page 237 – Uses unclear language that implies “Israel-Palestine” as a whole is an Arab country.
Sample Lesson Plans	“	Page 242 – Frames the Palestinian narrative of the 1948 War as fact, with no alternative perspectives.

Sample Lesson Plans	“	Page 256, 264-269 – Encourages teachers to use a poem featuring harsh criticism of Israel, but no content offering a positive perspective about Israel or criticism of Palestinian leaders.
Introduction	“	Introduction – States that “The implementation of Ethnic Studies presents an opportunity for teachers to...enable students to develop a deep appreciation for cultural diversity and inclusion, and aids in the eradication of bigotry, hate, and racism.” Despite this stated goal, the curriculum does not feature a single lesson about the Jewish community, mentioning Jews only in passing. With antisemitism rising and ignorance about the Jewish people still a major problem in our society, the exclusion of Jews from this curriculum is deeply disappointing.
General	“	As a career educator, I am deeply disturbed by the model curriculum currently being reviewed by The State of California, which openly promotes hateful boycotts against Israel and omits antisemitism as a form of bigotry. I am appalled that an educational effort meant to teach students about marginalized communities includes no lessons about Jews as a sizeable ethnic minority and frequent target of racism. As a parent and a California resident, I would hope to see the State of California teaching inclusion and tolerance, rather than BDS, which promotes hate and division. While I cannot comment from firsthand knowledge about depictions of other ethnic groups or conflicts, the very one-sided and biased portrayal of the situation in the Middle East with which I am intimately familiar casts a doubt in my mind about the entire curriculum.
