

Ethnic studies is just another unnecessary study to further burden teachers and students. Only serves to divide them further. Students should just be accepted as a person. Those in education know that in the last 35 years education is only indoctrination.