

From: Sue Fishkoff

Sent: Monday, October 26, 2020 6:28 PM

To: Ruth Parker

Cc: [list of other recipients redacted]; Ethnic Studies

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Re: Fw: A forward from J. Barry's friend, Marilyn; how can any self-respecting person trust the NYT after knowing this?

Ruth,

This is Sue Fishkoff here, editor of J. The Jewish News of Northern California. I'm glad I'm on your email list, because I can allay your fears.

What you have sent us is a piece of satire created in 2006, to protest the Israeli operation in Lebanon. The real May 10, 1943 front page of the New York Times is here (you have to scroll down past the fake front page, the explanation, and then you get to the real front page, which you can verify on the New York Times website itself):

<https://www.snopes.com/fact-check/warsaw-ghetto-uprising/>

It is awful to see this true "fake news." Whatever you think of the New York Times, it would never have published such Nazi propaganda.

Regards,

Sue

On Mon, Oct 26, 2020 at 5:41 PM Ruth Parker wrote:

I have seen this picture so many times and never until now knew that it appeared on the front page of the New York Times with headlines blaming the Jews for their own destruction.

----- Forwarded Message -----

From: J. Barry Gurdin

To: Ruth Parker; [list of other recipients redacted]

Sent: Monday, October 26, 2020, 04:28:06 PM PDT

Subject: A forward from J. Barry's friend, Marilyn; how can any self-respecting person trust the NYT after knowing this?

--

Sue Fishkoff

Editor