

Good Evening

It is very disappointing that a course on discrimination would exclude one ethnic group that has the longest history of discrimination. The course needs to include the story of the Jewish people and the issues that surround their struggles.

Thank you
Karen Epler