

In my view this whole curriculum serves only to drive wedges in our society. We should emphasize in our schools what brings us together as a nation. I think ethnic diversity is a strength of our country and that should be celebrated. Instead, this curriculum seems to promote only division and victimhood. I think the whole course model is completely misguided and should be abandoned.

James Holtz