Please email SaveCAethnicstudies@gmail.com to add to our list, and/or to work further with us in this movement for one of the most critical educational justice causes of our time.

We represent 50+ years of Ethnic Studies, as the primary communities, constituencies, and stakeholders who brought this state-level project to possibility, through decades of struggle, blood, sweat, tears, intellectual labor, remembrance, knowledge production and envisioning of a more equitable education for present and future generations.
