

From: Charles Batts
Sent: Thursday, August 1, 2019 12:33 PM
To: Ethnic Studies
Subject: Ethnic Studies

How do we expect positive outcomes from students when all we teach is victimhood?
Maybe its time we started teaching skills required for employment and assimilation.
California has some of the lowest scores in the country in mathematics and science, a state that prides itself on entrepreneurship and high technology development.