Chapter of Model Curriculum	Your Name and Affiliation	Comment (include page and line numbers where applicable)
Chapter 4. Glossary & Bibliography	Changsook Woo Korean Consulate Education Center in San Francisco	[page 7 , line number 244] I am asking Korean should be included especially between Chinese, Japanese and Southeast Asian-etc.
Chapter 4. Glossary & Bibliography	Changsook Woo Korean Consulate Education Center in San Francisco	[page 21 , line number 807-808] 6 total should be corrected to 7 total and I hope Korean Americans should be added to the Japanese Americans, African Americans, Chinese Americans, Mexican Americans, Native Americans, Jewish Americans. It will be better, I hope, that you add Korean Americans before Japanese Americans.

Chapter 4. Glossary & Bibliography	Changsook Woo Korean Consulate Education Center in San Francisco	[page 31 , line number 1230-1234] Social justice campaign which include Comfort women issue will broaden students' horizon in term of human rights especially during the war. Students can also learn and think about humanity and human rights during the class. And they will have some opportunities to consider their career paths in the near future. "What am I going to do devote myself to? Or what makes for people to live in dignity? Which one is more important, knowledge or action? etc.. Comfort women issue is not only one community's issue but also global issue. Accordingly it should be considered as a global concern.
