

In Defense of E.S.! Save California Ethnic Studies

In addition to 25,000+ individuals directly signed on in support of the Save CA Ethnic Studies Coalition, listed below are a few of over 150 community-based organizations, institutions, bodies, and units, in support of the original Ethnic Studies Model

Curriculum Draft and an authentic Ethnic Studies moving forward. The organizations below have combined memberships of over 500,000, representing communities of color and our allies, for educational, racial, and social justice.

Please email SaveCAethnicstudies@gmail.com to add to our list, and/or to work further with us in this movement for one of the most critical educational justice causes of our time.

We represent 50+ years of Ethnic Studies, as the primary communities, constituencies, and stakeholders who brought this state-level project to possibility, through decades of struggle, blood, sweat, tears, intellectual labor, remembrance, knowledge production and envisioning of a more equitable education for present and future generations. Letter:

Greetings,

I am concerned about the attacks on the Ethnic Studies Model Curriculum that have been submitted to the CDE and in the media. I agree with and just signed a petition with the following demands:

1. Keep the current model curriculum draft (with some revisions) focused on the histories and social justice struggles of communities of color in the U.S.
2. Maintain the Ethnic Studies curricular framework—with disciplinary knowledge, language, and pedagogy—by not diluting or converting it into a non-equivalent field (i.e., multicultural studies, diversity studies, or area studies).
3. Improve accountability, transparency, and consensus-building with the Ethnic Studies expert practitioners of communities of color and Native people—throughout the entire model curriculum process and up until its completion and ratification.

Guiding Values, Principles, and Outcomes of Ethnic Studies Teaching

Given the range and complexity of the field, it is important to identify key values and principles of Ethnic Studies to aid in guiding and developing Ethnic Studies courses, teaching, and learning.

The foundational values of Ethnic Studies are housed in the conceptual model of the "double helix" which signifies the interdependence between holistic humanization and critical consciousness.

Humanization includes the values of love, respect, hope, solidarity, and is based on the celebration of community cultural wealth.

The values rooted in humanization and critical consciousness shape the following guiding principles for Ethnic Studies teaching and learning. Together, these are the two interwoven guiding values and seven principles Ethnic Studies lessons should include. Ethnic Studies courses, teaching, and learning will:

1. CULTIVATE

empathy, community actualization, cultural perpetuity, self-worth, self-determination, and the holistic well-being of all participants, especially Native People/s and People of Color;

5. CHALLENGE

imperialist/colonial hegemonic beliefs and practices on ideological, institutional, interpersonal, and internalized levels;

2. CELEBRATE

and honor Native People/s of the land and Communities of Color by providing a space to share their stories of struggle and resistance, along with their intellectual and cultural wealth;

6. CONNECT

ourselves to past and contemporary resistance movements that struggle for social justice on global and local levels to ensure a truer democracy;

3. CENTER

and place high value on pre-colonial, ancestral, indigenous, diasporic, familial, and marginalized knowledge;

7. CONCEPTUALIZE,

imagine, and build new possibilities for post-imperial life that promote collective narratives of transformative resistance, critical hope, and radical healing.

4. CRITIQUE

empire, white supremacy, anti-Blackness, anti-Indigeneity, racism, xenophobia, patriarchy, cisheteropatriarchy, capitalism, ableism, anthropocentrism, and other forms of power and oppression at the intersections of our society;
